Dear Ms. Rhéaume,

Thank you for your letter of November 4, 2005 regarding the CRTC's practice of publishing on its website the personal contact information provided by interveners. We appreciate the responsiveness to this matter and the initiatives that you have agreed to implement to address the concerns raised by the Canadian Internet Policy and Public Interest Clinic (CIPPIC). In due course, please advise us of the date that these initiatives have been implemented.

As we noted in our letter to you dated August 9, the broader issue of government organizations publishing personal information on the Internet is one that warrants attention. Therefore, we will discuss this matter with the Research and Policy Branch of this Office.

Thank you for your co-operation in this matter. If you have any questions in this regard, please call me at 613-996-2252.

Yours truly,
